Erin Moran

Erin Moran has been acting since age 5, but she's best known for the role of Joanie Cunningham in Happy Days, one of the longest-running situation comedies in television history. As the feisty Joanie, Erin shared the screen with Ron Howard and Henry Winkler every Tuesday night for 11 seasons. She carried on the tradition with Joanie Loves Chachi and then went on to appear in such television favorites as Murder, She Wrote, Love Boat and The Waltons.

Erin's been in more than 40 television commercials for such leading brands as Kellogg's Corn Flakes, Crest and Three Musketeers. She's also starred on the live theater stage in Lost in Yonkers, They're Playing our Song, The Vagina Monologues and Vanities.

She's worked with some of the biggest stars in the business and has mentored countless rookie actors during her long career. Truly a television legend, Erin is ready for a part in your next project, or to draw a crowd at your next event!
