

COMEDIAN • MOTIVATIONAL SPEAKER

JAMES GREGORY

"THE FUNNIEST MAN IN AMERICA!"

Here's what clients have to say about
James Gregory:

James Gregory has been making people laugh for more than 20 years. Although he's a nationally known comedian, James calls himself a storyteller. It just happens that his stories are absolutely hilarious!

James is constantly in demand, touring 46 weeks a year. He entertains soldout crowds in theaters and comedy venues and is very much in demand for corporate events. He's been the featured entertainer for over 200 companies, including Coca-Cola, Kimberly Clark, Hewlett Packard and Kroger. And thanks to the lack of vulgarity in his shows, he's also a favorite speaker for civic and church groups.

James is often heard on syndicated radio shows such as Rick and Bubba, John Boy and Billy and Bob and Tom. Combined, these popular radio shows are broadcast to audiences in over 220 cities nationwide. As a result, James has a grassroots following that numbers in the millions!

James bases his humor on his life experiences of growing up in a small Georgia town surrounded by a large extended family. He turns the clock back to simpler times, "when people actually talked to each other without a cell phone in their ear." James' success and his comedy are the direct result of the values with which he grew up.

DEEP-FRIED
COMEDY

"It was a great evening filled with laughter and smiles. My COO said it was the best money we spent at the conference!"

—Barbara Dunavant, Spirit Telecom

"He is a dream artist to work with—down to earth, low maintenance and he can sellout a house. Who wouldn't want to bring him to their venue?"

—*Heidi Stump, Executive Director
The Clayton Center Auditorium and Conference Center*

"Well, you certainly lived up to your reputation; even our guests from New Zealand and West Germany were impressed with your humor. Being funny and doing so in good taste is indeed a rare talent."

—*Dr. David Hull
Georgia Ophthalmology Association*
