

STEFANO FONZI

COMPOSER / CONDUCTOR

Stefano Fonzi creates beautiful music for all mediums. He is renowned across Europe for his television, film and commercial scores and original compositions. An accomplished musician, Fonzi graduated from the Santa Cecilia Conservatory of Music in Rome and studied film scoring at Berklee College of Music in Boston.

Fonzi's music was featured in a worldwide television commercial for UNICEF in 2007 and he's written the soundtracks for eight Italian TV programs. Since 2001, he's been collaborating and touring with the great film score composer Ennio Morricone, whose soundtrack for The Good, the Bad and the Ugly will be inducted into the Grammy Hall of Fame in 2009. Fonzi has recorded the following CDs Angeli Vs Demoni (Rai Trade), Falcone and Borsellino - The Courage to Be Alone (Rai Trade), and Padre Pio - A Man's Voice (Icarus Music). Fonzi also worked as a percussionist with Ennio Morricone to produce the CDs Focus, Arena Concerto, and Voci dal Silenzio.
